	Presentation

- x The School Board to plan topics for coverage in the Churchlands Bytes:
 - x The first topic would be covering the new faces on the Board - one each Bytes - Louise Williams, Matt Turnbull, Nandita Naroth and any other new members.
 - x Term One newsletter -

Kate advised that the AGM was held on Monday, 20 February 2023. There has not been much movement in office bearers and the P&C had a very good 2022. There is plenty of money available for projects, and hopefully the grounds plans can be completed.

The Uniform Shop is going well and is a very profitable outfit for the P&C. Succession planning is a priority for the P&C.

Business

- x Katherine advised that she will be resigning from the School Board mid year with no longer having a child at Churchlands SHS. This is an opportunity for another member to fill the Chair position and possibly a community representative.
- x Russ asked about the canteen and the cost of the food and possible shortages. The Canteen works on the healthy policy which is established through all high schools. The current Canteen business has received many positive comments and the staff and students seem very happy with the present food pricing and arrangements.
- x Another issue which has been raised previously is vaping. This topic is being managed as best as it can be by the school and monitoring of toilets is taking place. There has been communication in the past to parents. It is illegal and it is considered that more education needs to be shared with students about what
